HOT FIGHT OVER CUBA

Representatives Divided on Party Lines Over Cuba.

REPUBLICANS UPHELD THE RULES.

Motion to Recognize Was Rider to Appropriation Bill.

Washington, Jan. 19.—Cuba had a hearing in the house Tuesday, and for a time it looked as if parliamentary precedents would be set aside and the senate resolution recognizing the insurgents as belligerents would be attached as a rider to the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill. Mr. DeArmond (Dem., Mo.) precipitated the issue by offering the resolution as an amendment, but a point of order against it was sustained.

Mr. DeArmond appealed. For months no related bill had been introduced to allow the house to consider what the people of the country, without regard to party, desired, meaning that congress consider and act upon this question of recognizing the belligerency of the struggling patriots in Cuba. When the people of the country did as they did it was the duty of members to override party rules which had been used to suppress action. The newspapers were filled daily with harrowing tales of starvation and cruelty in Cuba. Should we emulate the example of Nero, who, while Rome burned, sat supinely and indifferently by when men almost within sight of our shores were fighting valiantly for principles as holy as patriots ever espoused or heroes ever fought for? He taunted the Republicans with being subservient to those who desired to prevent action on this question. Further action he insisted was a disgrace to American manhood. The motion as offered, he said, was a revolting mockery, a sham and a delusion. He stated the other side that the question could not be evaded or dodged, that with this opportunity before them they could not go back to their constituents and make the rules as an excuse for non-action.

Gov. Powers of Maine has made the humiliating confession that he is powerless to enforce the prohibition law in that state. The fact is that the Maine people are very much like those of other states. They are in favor of the prohibitory law, but opposed to its enforcement.—Haverhill Gazette.

The Georgia legislature has passed a bill for the establishment of a textile school as a branch of the state school of technology in Atlanta. The sum of $10,000 is appropriated for the purpose on condition that the like sum be raised by the friends of the movement consider this practically done. The school will be the first of its kind in the South.

The president of the National Prison Association, General Burknerhoff, in his last message emphasizes the religious factor in the reduction of crime. He says: "If we are to make any large progress in reformation of prisoners, or in the prevention of crime, in the betterment of mankind, we must utilize more fully than heretofore the religious element inherent in the heart of man. Although he may be a mere animal whose little life is rounded like a sheep, and ends with the grave, nevertheless man is the only animal whose life is governed, by what he believes and who rises or falls in accordance with his mental ideas."

A Difficult Case.

"I'm now trying to decide the most troublesome case that ever came within my jurisdiction," sighed the judge whose sense of justice and knowledge of the law are acknowledged on every hand.

"It's within my own household," he continued. "I have long insisted that my wife could get along with the servants if she only used tact and was equitably in all her rulings. Her mother is an invalid in the house and innocently responsible for the case now under consideration.

"The other morning while dressing for breakfast I was startled by a crash of crockery and a chorus of screams. Into my room rushed the children. Jimmy's eye was black, there was a bloodstain over Tommy's eye, Mamie had an angry scratch on her cheek, and Elsie was crying from pain. Of course I held my tongue. The maid had been running upstairs with an invalid's meal for another-in-law. The servant had the big slice over her head and moved hurriedly. Just as she reached the landing the children were making a rush like a young football team. There was a collision, a crash, a wreck, a series of falls, and the screams of alarm that had assailed us.

"My wife took the ground that the maid must be at once discharged. I insisted that we must know the whole truth before a verdict could be reached. My wife is handling the prosecution and my speech bound was ever more determined to get my prey. Jack, my oldest son, has the defense, and is just as determined as his mother. Now you can realize how I am placed. I can't disagree, like a jury. There is no court of appeal. I am slowly but surely convincing myself that my only hope is in bribing the maid to disappear."

The Tarpon of Florida Waters.

The tarpon frequently attains a length of feet or more, with a weight perhaps of more than 200 pounds. Such magnificent specimens, however, are seldom taken upon hook and line, and most anglers are willing to regard a fish weighing 100 pounds as a very large catch.

The tarpon is very closely related to the bonefish, and besides its great size, strength and gameness, it is remarkable for its enormous scales, some of those from a fish weighing 150 pounds, measuring 4 inches across. Over the greater part of the body the exposed portion of the scales is covered with an epidermis which resembles frosty glass, while the back of the fish is green and beautifully iridescent. The lower jaw is very strongly, a sort of indication of the vicious disposition of the fish. The last dorsal fin is prolonged into an spine of considerable length.

The tarpon is not, in Florida, at least, a good eating, the flesh being dark; consequently when after a game a fish has been brought to the boat it is often delivered over to the waiting minister, ruler and leader," he shouted. "In whose presence you scarcely dare to think, I ask you to give freedom and liberty to all, or your own outraged countrymen, as you did to us, and we did to you."

The chair then adjourned to point of order and the committee rose.

SENATE'S SHORT SESSION.

Washington, Jan. 19.—Yesterday's open session of the senate was brief. Practically the only business accomplished aside from the routine proceedings was the passage of the urgent demand appropriation bill. The measure as finally passed by the senate carried $1,913,510. The Teller resolution providing that bonds of the United States may be paid in standard silver dollars was favorably reported by a majority of the finance committee. An effort was made to fix a time for the final vote on the pending census bill, but it was abandoned.

Senator Morgan occupied the entire time of the executive session in presenting his views on the annexation of the Hawaiian islands. He spoke for about three hours, and his speech was a general presentation of the importance of the islands to the United States. He dwelt especially upon the importance of the islands. Mr. Morgan projected that if the United States did not acquire the islands there would be war between this country and some other power within ten weeks. It was not, he said, within the bounds of possibility, in view of the European competition for territory in Asia, that the Hawaiian islands would be allowed to remain independent for a year's time after the United States should finally announce their determination not to make them a part of American territory.

REVENUE CUTTER SERVICE.

Washington, Jan. 19.—Representative Hepburn of Iowa has introduced a bill to construct four vessels for the revenue cutter service to take the place of the revenue cutters Seward, McNamee, Collax and Boutwell. One of the others for service about the Columbia river bar on the Pacific coast, to cost not over $250,000; the three others, to cost $10,000 each, are for harbor service in Philadelphia, replacing the Washington; in Boston, replacing the Hamilton; and in New York, replacing the Chandler. Mr. Hepburn also offers a bill increasing the pay of chief engineers of the revenue cutter service to $2,000 on duty and $1500 on leave or orders, and granting pensions to the seamen.

CONGRESS MAY INVESTIGATE.

Washington, Jan. 19.—The operatives' strike in New England is likely to be made the subject of congressional inquiry. Representatives from southern states resent the statement that the south is ruining the north in its cotton manufacturing. They say that there ought to be general congratulation because to the general congratulation because the south, long depressed in business, is making a record for industrial development.

GERMAN TROOPS WITHDRAWN.

Washington, Jan. 19.—A cable dispatch has just been received at the Chinese legation from the Tsung Li Yamen, Pekin, to the following effect: A settlement of the difficulty with Germany has been effected. Xiao Chau bay is to be leased, a belt surrounding the bay extending about 30 miles to the boundary. All the German troops outside the prescribed limits are to be withdrawn. Two of the culprits charged with the murder of the missionaries are to be punished with death and the rest with imprisonment. Permission will be granted for the building of churches in the cities of Tsing Ning, Tsao Chow Fu and Chu Yeh, and dwelling houses for the missionaries in the seven places in the districts of Tsao Hien and Shan Hien will be erected, for which purpose a sum of $25,000 each will be allowed. This amount is to be taken also as a compensation for the killing of the missionaries. The sanction of the throne to the above mode of settlement has been secured.

DISTRIBUTION OF BREAD.

Angona, Italy, Jan. 19.—The bread riots were renewed here Tuesday. The participants in the demonstration, having been expelled from the town, assembled outside the town gates, but the cavalry dispersed them. A band of rioters wreaked and tried to burn the country house of a grain dealer. The troops quenched the flames and dispersed the mob. Fifty persons have been arrested. The military bakers are distributing bread to persons without food.

DEPARTMENT STORE FIGHT.

Denver, Jan. 19.—An incident of the night between the department stores and the newspapers in this city, Alderman Collier has introduced in the board of aldermen an ordinance prohibiting the employment of stores or factories employing children under 12 years of age, and another compelling proprietors of stores to furnish seats for women employees while not at work. Labor leaders propose to use every effort to secure the passage of the bill.

PENCHANT FOR SPILLING BLOOD.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 19.—Dr. Charles F. Simmons, a reputed millionaire and president of Simmons Patent Medicine company, shot and killed Emil Davidson, bookkeeper for the St. Louis Trust company. Dr. Simmons, who is an elderly man, met Davidson on the street. Passers-by heard angry words, and the next instant Simmons drew a revolver and fired five times, each shot taking effect. Simmons was arrested. He said that Davidson had attacked his daughter. Several years ago Simmons stabbed his brother-in-law in Mississippi. Three years ago he stabbed his bookkeeper named McBrain.

TWO WERE KILLED.

Colfax, Cal., Jan. 19.—Last evening a west-bound passenger train on the Central Pacific railroad jumped the track near here. Two engines were drawing the train. The boiler of one exploded, and Engineer Hackett and Fireman Lightner were killed. Engineer Brown and Fireman Brown were badly hurt. An invalid lady and Mail Clerk Stevens were hurt internally. The mail car caught fire and was burned.

The Democrats cheered. Mr. Pitt raised the point of order that the amendment was a change of existing law. Mr. Williams argued that there was no law on the subject this could not be a change of existing law. Mr. DeArmond urged the members to assert themselves and overrule the rules. If the Republicans did not, he said, they must accept the re-

PINGREEMS.

Michigan's Independent Governor on what he considers his first official visit to the state, as guest of the Pingree Club, was given a special honor at the January dinner of the independent club last night. He delivered an address on "What constitutes party loyalty," in the course of which he said: "It is the misfortune of great parties when long in power that to them flock all those who desire to enrich themselves by legislation which this party can give them. To the Republican party there have flocked, during the past few years, many birds of ill omen, undesirable tenants who are making the house so foul that they are driving out the rightful owners. These undesirable acquisitions, the cesses of the party would only be too glad to get rid of for the party's good. I make in my mind no difference between the integrity of the common people in one party or another."

Sir John Hawkins, in his "History of Music," tells us that its characteristic dulness and gravity, in which respect it differed greatly from the French, which was bright and jocund. And up to this subject, the same author notes a witty play of Elizabethan sonnet to the French Marchion Birton's remark, that "The Engliish match, being beaten by the drum, was slow, heavy and sluggish." "That may be true," he said, "but slow as it is it has traversed your master's country from one end to the other."—Chambers' Journal.

MILITARY MARCHES.

In military music the march occupies a prominent position, and has been employed not only to stimulate courage but also to give the men in the ranks a sense of the importance of the troops. One of the earliest instances of rhythmic music is the Welsh war strain, "The March of the Men of Harlech," which is supposed to have originated during the siege of Harlech castle in 1402. In honor of the military march was a song of later development.

Weak.

"There's something wrong with this tea pot, waiter. I can't get it to pour."

Waiter (with malicious grin)—"It's not the fault of the tea pot, sir, but the tea. They brew it so weak here it really has not strength to get up the spirit."—London Times.

NEW BEDFORD STRIKE

The Second Day of the Contest Without Incident.

FINING SYSTEM MADE AN ISSUE.

Weavers' Union Deplores Demonstration Monday.

New Bedford, Mass., Jan. 19.—The event of the second day of the strike was the action of the Weavers' union, which voted, after considerable discussion, to endorse the fining system as one of the issues of the strike. Beyond this there was little out of the ordinary. The cloth mills remained closed, and since no attempt was made to start the speed there was no happening of interest in the vicinity of any of the mills. Early in the morning about a hundred strikers gathered in the vicinity of the Bristol mill, where the trouble had occurred the night previous, but there was no excitement for them or from them.

The situation has apparently settled down for a long strike. The operatives are making plans to that end, and the manufacturers have nothing to say. At both ends of the city everything is as orderly as though a week of Sundays has struck town.

The weavers, at a meeting Tuesday, voted to endorse the action of the mass meeting last Friday night to make the removal of the fine system an issue of the strike. The vote was taken after a discussion of considerable length and it was quite a close shave for the issue, inasmuch as the president ruled that it required a two-third vote, the same as another question of strike. There were 530 votes cast, and the required two-thirds was 364. The vote on the adoption of the issue was: Yes, 332; no, 152. The majority over the required two-thirds was therefore 19.

The city hall was filled with nearly 600 weavers, about a third of whom were women. Most of them were in strike-costume—their best Sunday clothes. The meeting was a lively one and during its progress President Gunnison was frequently called upon to use considerable diplomacy in keeping order. The principal feature of the meeting was the financial report. The auditor reported that the Weavers' association had nearly $6000 invested in the savings banks of Fall River, Fair Haven and New Bedford. The executive board showed an increase of 200 members within the month ending Dec. 31.

After the disposal of these reports, which were adopted with a unanimous show of enthusiasm, the question of recognizing the abolition of the fine system as an issue, the chief business of the meeting, was taken up. One or two members argued that the fine question had nothing to do with the union business at this time, since it had been previously voted to act on it in March. The meeting then unanimously adopted the following resolution:

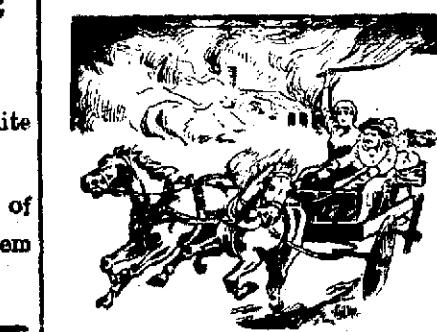

"Resolved, that the weavers, in mass meeting assembled, do deplore the action taken by some persons in the vicinity of Bristol mill, and that we do all in our power to prevent the destruction of property which has taken place at the Bristol or any other mill in this city."

With relation to the matter of the request of the weavers of the Wamsutta mills, to return to work, on the promise that they would not be cut, the meeting voted to lay the matter on the table.

The spinners' union voted to pay the members of the union strike pay, $4 per week per member, each member to be allowed 25 cents extra for every child of his family under 13 years of age. It was also voted to pay doffers $25 per week and doffers $3. Strike pay will commence Saturday, Jan. 29. A communication was received from the Carpenters' union of Boston tendering sympathy and offering aid.

ORGANIZING IN LOWELL.

Lowell, Mass., Jan. 19.—At the weekly

A prairie fire moves faster than any horse can run. No matter how long your mount may be, unless you have a good start of the fire, it will overtake you. It is the same way with many diseases. Unless you get a fair start, you cannot possibly shake them off. The only hope for anyone who is threatened with a serious disease is to start in time, and seek safety before the danger closes in about him.

The best thing for you, if you feel that your full bodily energy is lacking, is to seek the strengthening power-producing help of Dr. Clegg's Cough and Cold Cure. It is the only one which confers upon the digestive organs that keen zest of appetite and assimilation which transforms the food into nourishing, health-building blood, active muscular force, nervous energy and rugged endurance.

Do not wait until dyspepsia spreads into "liver complaint" and then turns into bronchial trouble which finally verges into consumption. Do not rely upon the devious and misleading advice of quacks and quacks and oil-curers who do not allow a designing druggist who seeks only his own profit rather than your health to foist any "boom" medicine upon you. Instil upon the remedy which is backed by thirty years of tried and tested experience. Attest its constant usefulness and popularity.

The experience of Mr. V. L. Vining, living at 69th Ave., Buffalo, N. Y., is given in his own words: "Five weeks ago I followed your advice and took two bottles of Dr. Clegg's Cough and Cold Cure and two vials of Peppermint Oil. I consider myself entirely cured, as there has been no crusting since I finished the last bottle. I am now in the 100th day of the cure. I give Dr. Clegg's Cough and Cold Cure as a specific for blood and digestive disorders. My appetite increased wonderfully and I have also gained flesh. I am now in full health. Attest its constant usefulness and popularity."

The New Hampshire Method

A liquor seller of Rockingham county who has just been released from jail for contempt of court and maintaining a liquor nuisance, has been banqueted by his friends. That is the style in New Hampshire. A man who violates the liquor law is a pretty good fellow and if he be unfortunate enough to get into jail his friends show their great admiration for him by banqueting him — Newburyport News

Terrible Accident

A horrible accident occurred at a crossing on the Western division of the Boston and Maine rail road at Salmon Falls yesterday. Eddie Perkins, an Ogunquit fish peddler, was struck by a passenger train and instantly killed. The horse he was driving was terribly mangled.

Will Not Be Increased.

The vacancy in the police force, as to numbers, will not be filled. It is well known that Marshal Entwistle has advocated a more economical police department, and the number of officers will not be increased by his recommendation.

PRISONER ESCAPED

Gloucester Officer Captures His Man and Then Allows Him to Escape. It seems that the Gloucester officer who came to this city Monday afternoon after a well known man who had been surrendered by his bondsmen in that city, lost his man and up to the present time has not recaptured him.

The officer arrived here on the three o'clock train, and securing the services of Officer Hurley to make the arrest, they proceeded to the Portsmouth house near the depot where the man worked. Here Officer Hurley placed him under arrest and the fellow readily agreed to accompany the Gloucester officer back without any trouble and only asked if he could not stay where he was until train time.

The police officer from Gloucester was a most accommodating fellow and as he was feeling good over finding his man so easily, consented to this. He had some little time before his train left, so proceeded to make himself comfortable. He's personer busied himself picking up his goods and went out to a rear room after something. He was gone so long that the officer became uneasy and went to look for him. It was then that it dawned upon him that his man had flown, having made his escape by a rear entrance. The officer, without even reporting the matter to the police here, who might have helped him, started on the trail of the man and when last heard from was reported to be in Dover still after his man.

SUPREME COURT

Jack Sullivan Released from Jail — Portsmouth Divorce Cases

The January term of the supreme court opened in Exeter Tuesday morning with Judge Chase on the bench and the usual large attendance of attorneys. The day was consumed in the calling of the docket and the assignment of the few cases for trial. A large majority of the actions of the docket were continued till April, some few referred to different gentlemen by agreement of counsel, and the balance set for trial this week and next. The only jury trial this term, the Lane will case, is set for next Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. Two divorce trials were heard in the afternoon, those of Barnard vs. Barnard, a Stratham case, in which divorce was decreed on the ground of extreme cruelty, and that of Leman vs. Leman, a Portsmouth case, in which decision was reserved. Court will be in session today, Thursday and Friday of this week and will resume on Monday of next week.

Twenty-eight new entries have been added to the docket. John W. Sullivan of Portsmouth was discharged from jail on petition for inability to pay costs taxed at $25.37. He appealed from the sentence of the Portsmouth police court for being drunk, which appeal was denied at the last October term, and on Nov. 5 he was sentenced to forty-five days in jail and to pay costs of prosecution.

Inspector of Police

Marshal Entwistle will have officer Hurley as his chief detective and right hand man in handling all cases where experience and general ability in police matters are concerned, and a few invited guests, shall take place this year at Kingsbury on Washington's birthday, Tuesday, Feb. 22.
